"Hasty Heart" Presented Huron Players At Best

Weekly Productions Fail To Hinder Local Performance

By Jim Sponseller

In a hospital somewhere in the Southeast Asiatic Command lay five men, all victims of the recent global war. Around this setting evolved a unique 3-act saga called "The Hasty Heart" produced by Bowling Green's Huron Playhouse staff in the Main Auditorium Monday night.

Ernest Capron lead the quintet through some uproarious scenes as he portrayed a Yank in a cosmopolitan ward composed of an Englishman, Arthur Moore; a New Zealander, Stanleigh Fisk; an Aussie, Dale Keighley; and a non-speaking bushman named Blossom played by Floyd Heckert.

Rita Roof gave a splendid performance filling the only feminine role as nurse Sister Margaret. The arrival at the hospital of a strongheaded and fiery-tempered Scotsman played by Dick Bauman added the drama to the plot, for the contemptible clansman had only a few weeks to live and everyone knew it but him.

Choral Group Gives Concert Friday Night

Bowling Green's fourth consecutive summer concert will be presented by the Summer School Chorus Friday evening, July 29, at 8 p.m. in the PA auditorium.

The chorus, consisting of 100 townspeople and students, will sing numbers including a choral setting of Wagner's overture to "Die Meistersinger," and compositions by Tschai-

Vets To Apply For Dividend

Veterans of World War II may apply after Aug. 29 for the special $2,800,000,000 dividend to be paid to approximately 16,000,000 present and former National Service Life Insurance policyholders, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Application blanks will be available Aug. 29 in all postoffices and VA Offices and through veterans' service organizations.

It was explained that all the veteran needs to do is to obtain one of the application forms, which is a three-fold card containing all instructions necessary to get the dividend, then fill it out and mail it to VA. If the veteran does not know the number of his insurance policy, the application can be identified by his service number, rank and the exact name used during service with the armed forces.

Only official application blanks will be accepted and since these will not be available until Aug. 29 any applications received prior to that date will not be processed, it was explained.

Veterans were urged not to write to VA about the status of dividend applications, since such correspondence would only cause delay. First dividend checks are scheduled for mailing in January of next year.

Plays Presented Tomorrow Night

Three one-act plays will be presented tomorrow night in the Main Auditorium directed by members of Prof. Sidney Stone's Directing Class 341. Curtain time will be 8:15.

Paul Finucan directs the first one-act, "I'll Eat My Hat," with the cast including Jeanne Barber, Bob Sullivan, Janet Thomas, Phyllis Wolf, Libbie Arnholt, and Roberta Babb.

Four students comprise the cast of "Fixers, Incorporated" directed by Marvin Tavel. They are Marc Barbour, Fred Thayer, Jeanne Barber, and Evelyn Gronberg.

The final play, "His Mama's Boy," is directed by Larry Daly with a cast of Ralph Dille, Janet Thomas, Alice Kahn, Libbie Arnholt, and Mitzi Peterson.

One Honorary Degree To Be Given Aug. 5

John R. Schwarz, professor emeritus of history at BGSU, will deliver the graduation address at the August 5 exercises, President Frank J. Prout announced this week. Prof. Schwarz's topic will be the "American Citizen of Tomorrow."

Dr. Prout also announced that Helen Brydon, president of Lake Erie College for Women, Painesville, O., will receive an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Prof. Schwarz, who retired last August after 25 years service on the BG faculty, is a prominent speaker, being particularly noted for his addresses on Abraham Lincoln. Incidentally, Prof. and Mrs. Schwarz celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary yesterday.

He received his AB from Miami

*kowsky, Offenbach, Weelkes, Victor Herbert, and Cole Porter. In a lighter mood, there will be numbers by Fred Waring and folk songs arranged by Simeone, Murray, and VanHeusen.

As guest soloist, Professor Dale Haven will play the following piano selections: "Polonaise, Op. 26, No. 1," by Chopin, "Clair De Lune," by Debussy, and "Gavotte" and "Musette," from "Op. 1" by o'Albert.

The twenty-five members of the Summer School Chorus who are also members of the university's nationally known A Cappella Choir will sing a Bach motet, "Jesu Priceless Treasure."

Miss Truman To Sing Here

One of the outstanding personalities on the Artist Series program for next season at Bowling Green is Margaret Truman, a comparatively recent edition to the American singing stage. Miss Truman is scheduled to appear March 30 according to an announcement by Prof. Wilbur J. Abell, committee chairman.

Others appearing during the series are: The Robert Shaw Chorale on Oct. 6; Ely Culbertson, peace authority, speaking on "The Atlantic Pact vs. Russia," Nov. 10; Burl Ives, ballad singer, Jan. 12; Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Jan. 22; Louis Untermeyer, poet and writer, "What Americans Read—and Why," March 9 and Lauritz Melchior, tenor, April 13.

All programs are scheduled at 8:15 p.m. in the Men's Gym or Main Auditorium.

Seniors To Meet In Gate Theatre

A meeting of August graduates will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Gate Theatre auditorium.

Purpose of the meeting will be to practice for commencement and to plan seating charts for visitors. It has been estimated that four tickets will be allowed each graduate for his visitors.

Prof. Emeritus John Schwarz

University and his AM from the University of Chicago. Later he served as superintendent of Butler County schools and principal of the Miami University Training School.

While at Bowling Green, Prof. Schwarz was faculty adviser to Emerson Literary Society for 23 years, and chairman of the University Artists Series committee for 19 years. It was largely through his efforts that many prominent personages such as violinist Fritz Kreisler, and such famous organizations as the United States Marine Band were brought to Bowling Green.

Notice To Seniors

All seniors who have not picked up their graduation announcements may do so Wednesday, July 27 in the Well from 1 to 4.

JUST TALK

Miriam Johnson

Mary Lyons

ALTAR BOUND: Ed Merry, Pi Theta, soon to tie the knot with Marge Garfield, local Bowling Green gal. An August wedding is planned for Fred Boggs, Phi Delta, and Jeanne Michaels, Alpha Xi Delta. September will be the month for wedding bells for Ethel Hall and Frank Huntley, Theta Chi. Phillis Paugh, Alpha Gamma Delta, will repeat the wedding vows with Charles Seeley, Pi Theta, on July 30.

ALREADY BOUND: Jeannette Davis, June grad, made a July trip down the aisle with Don Myers, an Ohio State Law School grad. Marjory Jones, a former Bee Gee student, wed to Jim Miller, also a former Bee Gee-ite. Andy Emery, Bee Gee student from New York, married home-town girl, Mary Pfeiffer, in June. Jane H. Pearce, June grad, hitched to Reed S. Elliot, former Bee Gee-ite, in the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Dayton, June 25. They are now residing in Youngstown where Mr. Elliot is attending Youngstown College.

ACHIEVEMENT: Congratulations to Alpha Gamma Delta for winning their second silver tray for achievement!

OLD HOME WEEKEND: Many Sigma Nus returned to the campus last weekend for their annual summer meeting. A picnic high-lighted their festivities.

Theta Phi turned out in good numbers, also, for their annual summer get-together. A house-party at midnight Friday and a picnic Saturday made up part of their social program.

SURE BET! Where there's shmoos there'll be "shmoochin" . . .

PINNINGS: Dave Weiss, Sigma Chi, pinned Emma Lou Rubloff . . . Jim Clinger, Beta Sigma, and Evaloo Dresser, Theta Phi.

MIRACLE? She was only an optometrist's daughter. But give her two glasses and she'll make a spectacle of herself!

TRUE LOVE: She's the only girl for me. I feel, she can play "Bali Ha'i" on her glockenspiel.

MORE PINS: Barbie Hart, Alpha Gamma, is pinned to Bob Englehart, Theta Chi. Marilyn Fischer pinned to Fred Durst, Sigma Chi. Jack Wilson, Sigma Nu, has pinned a home town girl. —Another Sigma Chi pinning, Bob Foster to a Napoleon girl.

POME:

A boy, a book
A girl, a look
Book neglected
Flunk expected.

MORE ALTAR BOUND: From the SAE house comes word that Norman Weiss will marry Lou Wasserman, Toledo nurse, Aug. 20. Bob Parlette, Phi Delta, ringed Marion Gohlke of Alpha Phi. Bob Croy and Bee Gee grad, Aleta Hawk, will be married here Aug. 14. Flossie Beer and Bob Randels, SAE, will middle-aisle it Aug. 17.

RUMOR HAS IT: —That the best cook on campus is Vincent Tedesco, lad from Utica, N. Y. Just ask anyone who's tasted his spaghetti dinners.

HI, MOM: Mrs. Idella Buchanan, whose daughter, Mary Martha was a June honor grad, is celebrating her first summer as a housemother. She's at the Sig Chi House.

MORE ALREADY BOUND: Charles Hague and Margory Papl were married June 6, in Toledo—he's a Kappa Sig. More Kappa Sig weddings—Tom Atchison and Sue Phifer, June 18, in Cleveland; and Tom McHugh and Shirley Navarre, in Flat Rock, Mich., also June 18.

BABES IN AHMS: Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Kurtz (she's the former Mary Russell) are the parents of a baby girl born June 29. The baby has been named Linda Jean. A baby girl was born July 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Littrell. She has been named Vicki Allison.

MORE ALTAR BOUND: Art (Judge) Lauer, Kappa Sig, and Jackie Dempsey will marry Aug. 27 in Buffalo, N. Y. Sept. 3 Priny Arthur and Jo Ann Enger will be married in Cincinnati.

UNCLE SAM, COME ACROSS: The PiKAs report no recent pinnings, ringings, or weddings. Their story—no checks.

Nat Getting Good Business

Swimming Program Keeps Staff Busy

By Miriam Johnson

Boy, is this a cool assignment!—A hundred and five in the shade outside and here I am in the Nat, perched on the edge of the pool.

Just had a talk with Al Sawdy—he's the director of pool activities. A talk, that is, if you can call communication in a boiler factory talking. Though Al says the record number of swimmers at one time is around 130, there must be a million kids in there now—all of them screaming and having the time of their lives.

The Summer Swimming Program is sponsored by the university to meet the needs of community and university towns. What began as a Cub Scout trip from Weston has grown until a group of 40 boys and girls from that town come twice a week for instruction.

A staff of three, two student assistants, Bill Van Allman, and Tom Lloyd, and Mr. Sawdy, supervise all classes of recreation and instruction. The staff, all trained by the Red Cross in Lifesaving, and qualified in Water Safety, follow the Red Cross program of instruction. Students range in age from about 6 to 40. There are 133 beginners, 77 intermediates, 16 swimmers, and 20 advanced swimmers who receive instruction in junior lifesaving. Girls in these classes outnumber the boys by 2 to 1.

Members of the junior lifesaving class help supervise the recreation periods. Recreation is supervised, not organized.

Al and the boys are especially proud of their record of no accidents. They use the "buddy" system in the pool. Each youngster has a partner and they swim in pairs. Every so often, the supervisor yells, "Get your buddy," and the two raise joined hands. In this way a check can be made on the swimmers at any moment.

Number of swimmers has increased considerably over last year when the eight weeks total was 7,000. This year attendance is 8,395 at the end of six weeks. Proportion of adult swimmers has gone up, too, partly because children swimming at night must be accompanied by a parent. Water in the pool is maintained at 78° and is checked every day for chlorine content and PH condition (that's acid or alkaline, they had to explain to me). Pool upkeep comes in Dale Sautter's department as Maintenance Head in Physical Education and includes department as maintenance head in physical education and includes supervision of the laundry where each suit is laundered and sterilized after each wearing.

"All colleges should decide on a universal system as this would tend to lessen the confusion when transferring the students' grades."

Mary Treece, a junior from Continental: "I really don't know too much about it. It seems to me that our present system has very few fallacies. A course may be just as interesting under the quarter system as under the semester system. I think one's concentration may be keyed as highly under either method."

When I go home between semesters a good many of my friends have just returned to school because they are on the quarter system. The only good point I can see for the quarter system is that when you go home you start the next term with a clean slate and have no studies to worry over during the holidays. It seems that under the quarter system the courses are too concentrated."

New Language Courses Offered

Foreign language courses not formerly offered at BGSU will be added to the upper division schedules starting with the fall semester, Dr. C. L. Rew, foreign language chairman, announced.

Among those new courses to be offered for seniors and graduate students is a one-year course on "Modern German Fictions," which will be instructed by Professor B. G. F. Sima. Also in the German Language field, a course in "Modern German Drama" will be available to upper division students. Professor W. J. Weiershauer will be instructor.

To strengthen the German major, two courses will be given only upon demand entitled, "History Of The German Language," and "German Romanticism," Dr. Rew said. These courses, of one semester each, will also be for seniors and graduate students.

Due to the new additions in the Graduate Division, it will be possible in the fall for students working on the MA degree to get a minor in either German or Spanish.

For the first time also, two one-semester courses on "History Of The Spanish Language" offered by Prof. J. V. Haggard and "The Spanish Essay" instructed by Professor F. E. Baird will be available to graduate students on demand.

Vets Pay Gown Fee; Get Refund

Veterans graduating in August must pay the deposit on their caps and gowns from their own pockets. This was announced last week by the Veterans Office.

However, following commencement, vet grads may get requisitions from the VA Office and turn them in with the cap and gown and receive their complete deposit back.

BG Senior Heads Blinded-Vets Group

Robert Oberhouse, a senior at Bowling Green State University, has been elected state chairman of the Blinded Veterans Association.

The Pemberville student was elected to the position at a meeting last week in Toledo where 78 members of the one-year-old organization went on record as favoring federal legislation to give each blinded veteran an automobile.

Although a Japanese shell blinded Bob on Bougainville Island in 1943, he swims, dances, fishes and follows the routine of any other student. Bob also makes and sells 32 types of leather articles.

2 Movies Shown This Weekend

For the last weekend of the summer term, the social committee has scheduled two popular release movies to be shown in the Main Auditorium. "East Side of Heaven," starring Bing Crosby and Joan Blondell, may be seen Friday night at 7. Stuart Erwin is featured in "He Hired the Boss," to be shown Saturday at 7 p.m.

Following the movie Friday night, there will be a disc dance in the Rec Hall from 9 to 11:30.

Loyal Huffman and his orchestra will play for a dance Saturday night from 9 to 12 in the Rec Hall.

plus a persuasive Scotch brogue faultlessly from here on in. The fact that a half dozen curtain calls from a half-filled auditorium was some indication of the success of Bill Prentice's directing of this comedy-tragedy medium.

The break-neck one play a week pace of the Huron Playhouse did not tell on Monday's production—certainly a credit to the entire Bowling Green play production setup and a group of ambitious seasoning actors.

Camera To Halt The Exchange Of Activity Cards

Future Bowling Green students will not be able to exchange or "borrow" Ac or ID cards.

As of this fall, all Ac and ID cards will carry the holder's picture. This new style in Ac cards, not new at BG, will be the result of the recent purchase of a Beattie Portronic camera. Every student will have his or her pic taken.

In an interview last week, Eugene F. Beatty, school director of services, said that the camera would be put into operation in Dean Overman's office today and asked that all students come in as soon as possible to get "shot."

Hours on the camera will be, 9 to 10 a.m. and 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. each day until the end of summer school.

This camera, a new type, is now being used by many commercial photographers and publicity agencies for the famous "cheesecake" shots. It is adaptable to either 35 mm or 70 mm film. Operating on an automatic reloading basis, the machine is capable of extremely high speed shots. Mr. Beatty expressed the hope that it would be useful for sport action pictures.

5 Religious Groups Unite

One of the largest events on campus, Religious Emphasis Week, will be sponsored by five student religious groups next fall instead of one, as in the past.

Cooperating with the Student Christian Fellowship in providing speakers are the Christian Science Organization, Lutheran Student Association, Jewish students, and Unitarian Fellowship. The Newman Club has arranged for consultation service.

Religious Emphasis Week will begin Dec. 4 and will include assemblies, seminars, dormitory bull sessions, personal conferences and some class room discussions.

Books, Like Dreams, Really Don't Matter

By John Durniak

Shallwee flunked his lampology exam with the ease of one knocking ashes from a cigarette. His philosophy followed the it-won't-matter-in-a-thousand-years school of thoughts, and lampology, to him, wasn't even a flicker in the light of the ages.

He left his books at the library and started to walk in the rain. With the test a part of the pitiful past, his mind now turned to considering the oddities of the present. His first thought hinged on the weather and he tried calculating the amount of handkerchiefs it would take to dry the tears of a cloudy sky.

Raincoats, rubbers, and umbrellas sloshed past Shallwee and he was aggravated by the way they disturbed the beautiful puddles that began forming. Puddles to him were what a strong drink is to other men; they held a world of their own within themselves.

He paused over one pool of raindrops and his imagination dove into it. Reflections of stop lights were mixed with those of passing auto lights, street lamps, and a neon sign . . .

People jammed the arena. People, people, people—the kind the world is made of — hooted and shouted for the main event to come on. They were impatient. Preliminaries were small and boring because the fans loved their fights, victories, and tragedies big.

Spot lights were on. Down one aisle came a huge wrestler in white and green trunks yelling, "Give me liberty or give me death." In the other one came a brute with a golden cape and a fancy hair-do shouting, "What this country needs is a good five cent cigar."

The crowd went wild. "Fighters like these only meet once in a life time," is the slogan the bookmakers used. The fans had bet themselves down to their naked backs and the bookmakers were happy because no matter who lost, the bookies won.

Muscles pushed muscles and groans filled the empty spaces. And the crowd was wild . . . until a car went by and disturbed the puddle . . .

Shallwee looked up and started walking again. The rain had stopped and by tomorrow all the puddles would be dry and forgotten but the ink mark from lampology in the Registrar's Office would be dry and just beginning to live.

Mom and Pop couldn't read the pictures in puddles but the Registrar's symbols were much simpler to follow. Shallwee turned down Main Street and knew it wouldn't matter in a thousand years.

Full House At Bee Gee

The housing shortage, always tricky at Bowling Green, has hit a new high.

Last week the Office of the Dean of Students sent out letters advising all students admitted for the fall term who did not already have housing that it would be useless for them to even come here personally in search of quarters. All accommodations, either on or off campus, have been filled.

To make matters worse, not even half of those on the residence waiting list have been placed. Of the 1,000 or so on the list, only an approximate 400 have been placed.

Also, many students who have not paid all of their room-rent are in danger of losing their reservations. They have until Aug. 1 to pay the balance due.

New Foes Highlight Falcon Court Schedule

A 30 game schedule for the 1949-50 Falcon basketball team has been announced by Athletic Director Harold Anderson. The squad will play 16 games on the road and 13 contests here on the home hardwood. One "home" game will be in the Toledo Sports Arena.

Several new opponents dot the schedule. A new foe from the state of Kentucky has been added, Eastern Kentucky, a team which downed Western last year. William and Mary will bring their quintet here on Dec. 19, while Brigham Young travels east to play here on Jan. 2.

Other newcomers include Tampa (Florida), Evansville College, Oklahoma City, Lawrence Tech, Beloit, while DePaul University makes an appearance on list after a two-year absence.

Bowling Green's court warriors invade the west coast from Feb. 3 through 6. Three new opponents will be faced out on the coast, Loyola of Los Angeles, St. Mary's College, and San Jose State.

The battle for the "peace pipe" will be renewed on Jan. 11 and Feb. 22, when Bowling Green and Toledo U. will square off against each other.

The complete schedule is as follows:

(Capitals denote home games)

Dec.

- 1 TIFFIN
- 1 HILLSDALE
- 5 BLUFFTON
- 5 GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS
- 8 Western Kentucky at Louisville, Ky.

- 10 Evansville at Owensboro, Ky.

Champion Browns Drill For Grid Battles

Coach Paul Brown, with the elements to make up another championship team, brought his Cleveland Browns into Bowling Green early this week for their pre-season training.

The three-time conference champions will drill here for six weeks before going out to defend their All-America Conference crown. Eventually the squad will be cut down to 32 men, in accordance with the league rules.

25 New Candidates

There are 27 veterans and 25 newcomers on the Cleveland squad as they enter BG. This list of new men is the heaviest it has been in years. Fight for the 32 places on the squad will probably be the keenest in the four year history of the club.

Thirty-five of the 52 are six-foot tall, or over, while only two are as short as 5 foot 10 inches. The average weight of the players is

The Pacemakers will meet Sigma Chi for the tournament championship on field five today. Skashers and Chowhounds square off on field one for the consolation title.

Ball and Chains were drubbed to the tune of 17-2 by the league winning Pacemakers in a tournament game played Monday night.

Ray Roob was the winning twirler with Murphy doing the catching while Mosnot and Alexander made up the losing battery. Curt Nelson took down swatting honors as he pounded out four hits in the 17 hit barrage. Four baggers were banged out by pitcher Roob and Wright.

Sigma Chi who played only mediocre ball in regular league play became suddenly awake as they nosed out ATO 8-6. Long Charlie Share tossed the altitude ball for the winners with Brickhart doing the catching, Hooper Jones receiving the loss. Gene Fenn and MacCallum led the Sigma Chi attack with three hits apiece. The losers were paced by Berry and Brockman, each got three hits in as many trips to the plate. The Sigs collected 15 hits and the ATOs 12.

Skashers came out of the game with the Hose Nosers the winner by the score of 8-4 in the consolation tournament. Sanford was the winning flinger allowing the "rubber beads" but 7 hits while McCleary received the loss. He allowed 14 hits including two home runs by Kaufman and Jackson. Heritage had a four base blow for the losers. Roy Leyland knocked out three hits for the winners while Hemberlein likewise for the Noserers.

Chowhounds eliminated the Sigma Nu team in the other consolation game by eeking out a close 3-2 win. Rogers and Shade made up the winning battery while Doug Smith and Scruta performed the pitching and catching chores for the losers. Renward's three hits were tops for the hungry lads while Kunkelman topped the Sigma Nu team with two hits. One circuit blow in the game, that by Paul Waseley. The Chowhounds outthit the Sigma Nu team 12 to 8.

Golf, Tennis Play Near Completion

Four golfers have won their second round matches and remain in the intramural golf tournament as it enters its third round. Results are as of Monday afternoon.

Dave Adams defeated his second opponent, Harry Brockman, to enter the quarter-finals. Others who have gone into the same phase are: Phil Bilbao, who defeated Leroy Volkmer, C. J. Westoven downed Bud Lininger, while Ray Roob turned back Dave Joyce.

Ted Korn and Dave Adams entered the semi-finals of the intramural tennis tournament, as the event draws to a close. Adams outpointed Al Russo, as Korn won over Bud Lininger.

MARMADUKE MOTH SAYS:-

Says Marmaduke Moth
"I'm in despair
For since Wise
Cleaners everywhere
Moth proof with the Monite process
I'll have to stop
Eating, I guess!"

Sanitary
DRY CLEANERS

Ah-h-h-h-h!—At last I've arrived at the source of that marvelous odor! ...
